

It's Almost Here!

if you love art and are a student* in grades 9-12

make plans to join us now for

Saturday, January 19 to Monday, January 21, 2008

(Martin Luther King Weekend)

Youth Opportunities United

Art aNIAGINATION Camp 2008

This 3-day, 2-night camp is free to interested students* as a project of Youth Opportunities United. Select in-depth instruction in drawing,

learn about figure drawing & portraiture, different tools and mediums, line quality, tones and perspective

painting or learn about techniques in watercolor and acrylic, color theory, brush control and various applications

sculpture

learn how to create an armature, the use of form and shapes, and the use of various tools and mediums

Art Camp is a workshop focused experience. You must be willing to participate fully in all of the art classes, have a desire to learn, and apply what you learn to your project. After you submit your application, expect a telephone call and a letter with a confirmation of your attendance. You will receive a list of items you can and cannot bring with you. This is an over-night, 3 day art camp with professional art teachers and art projects. Please do not apply if you cannot stay for the full 3 days. Students should arrive at camp Saturday morning (Jan. 19) and be picked up Monday afternoon (Jan. 21). Camp Gilmore has heated cabins and is located on Malibu Canyon Road, between the 101 Freeway and Pacific Coast Highway. Artwork is required for placement purposes and will be returned to you after camp.

Applications are available online at <http://www.youla.org>

* Open only to students under Los Angeles County Department of Children & Family Services Supervision

Questions? Contact Michael Wrice for more information 213 739 6202 wricem@dcsf.lacounty.gov